

TRUSTEE RECRUITMENT GUIDELINES FOR CANDIDATES

WHAT IS A TRUSTEE?

The Trustees have the independent control and legal responsibility for the Institute ensuring that the Institute is acting in accordance with its objectives as laid out in the Royal Charter.

A Trustee is an important role for the Institute and is a voluntary one. Trusteeship can be rewarding for many reasons - from making a difference to the Institute to developing personal experience and networks.

For more information on the role of a Trustee, it is recommended that candidates look at the Charity Commission document – the essential trustee (CC3) - https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/the-essential-trustee-what-you-need-to-know-cc3

INSTITUTE OBJECTIVES

The objectives of the Institute are laid out in paragraph 3 of the Royal Charter. It states:

- (a) the promotion for the public benefit of the science and practice of building and construction;
- (b) the advancement of public education in the said science and practice including all necessary research and the publication of the results of all such research.

The Institute chooses to carry out these objectives by having members as noted in the Bye-Laws.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES – TERMS OF REFERENCE

Role

In accordance with Bye-Law 80, the business of the Institute shall be managed by the Board of Trustees ('the Board') who may exercise all such powers of the Institute and do on behalf of the Institute all such acts as may be exercised and done by the Institute and are not by the Charter or Bye-Laws required to be exercised or done by the Institute at General Meeting. Their duties as a minimum shall be to:

- Ability to influence, empower and where necessary lead a team.

A potential Trustee must be able to demonstrate the above competences on application for the role of Trustee.

Skills

There is a requirement for members of the Board to have a set of skills. The Institute requires all candidates on application to self-assess themselves against a list of skills and to do so periodically throughout their tenure. Skills may be added or deleted from time to time.

The current skills set requires the Board of Trustees as a whole to demonstrate proven experience in or working knowledge of the following:

- Setting target, monitoring and evaluation performance.
- Public relations, communications and marketing
- Financial management, budgeting and risk management
- Understanding the educational landscape within the construction industry
- Serving the public interest
- Strategic planning
- Development of policies internal and external
- Governance

- Understanding the International construction industry
- Equality Diversity and Inclusion
- Lobbying
- Legal

Following the Board election each year, an audit of Trustees' skills is used to assist with the selection of the remaining Trustee(s) to the Board.

Principle 6 of the Charity Governance Code relates to equality, diversity and inclusion. The Institute looks beyond the 9 protected characteristics of the Equality Act 2010 and aims to recruit as diverse a range of Trustees as possible in line with the recruitment processes of the Governance document.

TRUSTEE COMMITMENT

If elected or selected to join the CIOB Board of Trustees, trustee appointment is for a three (3) year term from the close of the AGM in June / July.

There are five (5) Board of Trustees meeting each year - June, October, December, January and April. These meetings can be face to face, virtual or of a hybrid nature.

In addition, Trustees will be expected to sit on one or more of the Governance Committees. These are listed below with an indication of the number of meetings and the busy periods of activities.

Nominations Committee – focussed work from September – April each year. Number of meetings varies – approximately four (4)

Finance & Risk Committee – Four (4) meetings each year – September, November, April & May

Remuneration Committee – up to three (3) meetings per year

External Affairs Advisory Board - up to three (3) meetings per year

Professional Standards Committee - up to three (3) meetings per year

Member Engagement Committee - up to three (3) meetings per year.

Members' Forum - All Trustees are members. Meets twice a year in June / July (incorporating the AGM, installation of the President and the Board of Trustees) and then virtually in January. The venue of the Forum is determined by the Board of Trustees in line with the Corporate Plan and regional strategic plans. The duration of the event is typically 4-5 days.

Trustees may also be a member of other Working Groups and Committees. Trustees will be asked to provide informal support to the regions through the role of Trustee Hub Champion.

As part of the Trustee induction programme over the first year of tenure, Trustees are encouraged to attend other Governance Committee meetings as observers, except for Remuneration Committee.

RULES OF ENTERING THIS PROCESS

All candidates for the Trustee roles must be current Corporate Members of the CIOB (MCIOB or FCIOB) and currently working within the industry. All applications must be written by the candidate.

All elements of this process will be overseen by the Nominations Committee and its final decision is binding.

Further feedback on either the written application or TEAMS interview will be available by contacting Director of Governance & Institute Secretary at governance@ciob.org.uk once the process is complete.

If you are unhappy or wish to make a complaint about any aspect of this written application process, you should contact governance@ciob.org.uk. Complaints can only be made in relation to the process and not the decision of the Nominations Committee.

APPLICATION PROCESS

In order to either stand for election or be eligible for selection as a CIOB Trustee, the Board of Trustees ('the Board') requires that candidates first demonstrate their ability to perform the role.

The assessment is in two (2) stages –

- Stage 1 a written application if successful move to stage 2
- Stage 2 a TEAMS interview.

Within the written application candidates will be asked to submit a jpeg picture, career resume and personal statement. The personal statement should state what you would try to do for the CIOB if elected as a Trustee and why you would like to hold the position.

These will not form part of the evaluation but will be published on the ballot paperwork for successful candidates.

Unsuccessful candidates will receive written notification as soon as practicable after the closing date of each stage.

Please note:

- AI technology should not be used in the answering of the questions.
   Nominations Committee reserves the right to use TurnItIn if it is suspected that AI technology has been used in the answering of questions.
- Nominations Committee reserve the right to require modifications to personal statement content prior to publication. The word limit must be adhered to at all times.

COMPETENCE

All Candidates are required to prove and demonstrate that they have the adequate level of competency and skills required for the role as Trustee.

The application form will be marked by the Nominations Committee. Each application will be blind-marked by 2 members of the Nominations Committee. If on review by the Secretariat there is a difference between the 2 marks or the application is borderline, a third blind-marking will be carried out. Only Part C of the application form is assessed.

The Nominations Committee will only be informed of the candidate's identity once the written application scoring has been completed and confirmed.

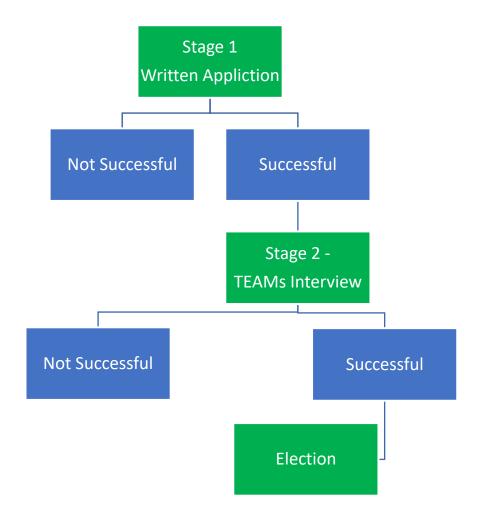

Please note: the names of applying candidates are not informed to others outside of the application process.

The TEAMS interview will be carried out by a minimum of three (3) members of the Nominations Committee. Full details on the TEAMS interview will be made available to candidates on the confirmation of the interview.

Trustee Skills

Candidates are asked to evidence their skills within the written application against the skills required by the Board of Trustees as a whole. This will be used in the skills audit for the selection process.

Candidates are asked to ensure that they are honest when assessing their skills set and to give examples of when they have used each skill.

Stage 1 - Application Form

Please note: a word limit of 300 words has been placed on each question. Only the first 300 words of any answer will be considered and therefore marked.

By exception, Members may submit their responses by audio file in line with the instructions on the application form at each question. Should Members have any difficulty with this process, they should contact governance@ciob.org.uk as soon as practicable.

Members are asked to read the question carefully and construct responses that specifically address the question asked with relevant personal examples.

The Competencies assessed on the application form are:

1. Understanding the CIOB and its global nature – You will be expected to be able to demonstrate an in depth understanding of the CIOB and its role in the global construction industry, together with what the Institute represents and its objectives. This could include services to the CIOB or industry and would normally require some knowledge of the Royal Charter, Bye-Laws and associated Rules and Regulations. (See www.ciob.org/about)

- 2. Understanding of Trusteeship You will be expected to describe your understanding of legal duties, responsibilities and liabilities of being a Trustee. (https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/the-essential-trustee-what-you-need-to-know-cc3) (Support for charity trustees)
- 3. Policy Development You will be expected to demonstrate the ability to develop, contribute and / or implement policies to ensure that the objectives of the organisation are achieved.
- 4. Managing Performance You will be expected to demonstrate the ability to take responsibility for managing performance of a business programme or project ensuring that an organisation, its relevant individuals and any relevant Boards are performing effectively to deliver objectives. As a CIOB corporate member you will have proven experience of managing performance, however for trusteeship we are seeking evidence of an enhanced level of experience commensurate with the expectations of the role.
- 5. Learning and Development You will be expected to demonstrate how you plan and evaluate your Continuing Professional Development under Rule 10 of the Rules and Regulations of Professional Competence and Conduct, and that of your team.
- 6. Equality, Diversity & Inclusion You are expected to demonstrate your commitment to ED&I and how this could benefit the CIOB. (https://www.ciob.org/industry/politics-government/campaigns/equality-diversity-inclusion)

Stage 2: TEAMS Interview

All candidates who have reached the required level from the written application form will be invited to participate in a TEAMS interview.

The questions asked at the interview will be sent to the candidate on confirmation of the interview by email, together with the format for the interview. The TEAMS interviews will be carried out with cameras off.

The interview will take approximately 40 minutes. Please ensure that you join the interview at the required time. If a candidate does not join the meeting within 10 minutes of the interview time, the interview will be discarded.

The Competencies assessed at the interview are:

1. Strategic Thinking and Vision – You will be expected to demonstrate the ability to think at a strategic level and develop and share the vision of the future of an organisation.

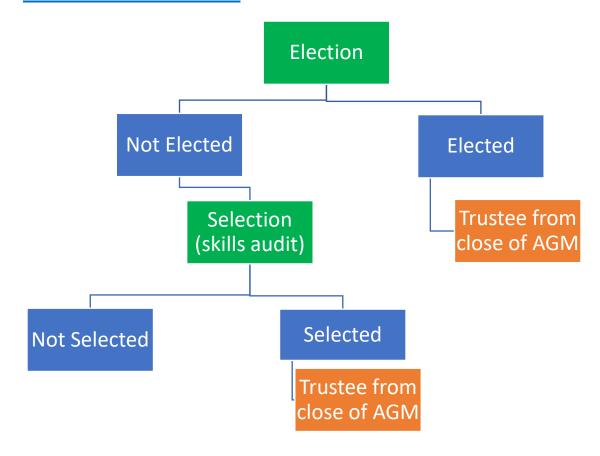

- 2. Making Judgements You will be expected to demonstrate the ability to consider a variety of solutions to problems and devise the best way forward.
- 3. Influencing You will be expected to demonstrate the ability to gain the commitment of others by anticipating and taking account of their concerns and motivations.
- 4. Integrity You will be expected to demonstrate the ability to act with integrity, putting the interests of the organisation first, working to ensure that the professional and ethical standards of the Institute are upheld.
- 5. Creative Thinking You will be expected to demonstrate the ability to generate original, imaginative ideas and solutions to problems.
- 6. Openness and Challenge You will be expected to demonstrate the ability to share your own views and ideas openly, for these to be challenged and the ability to challenge others for the benefit of an organisation.
- 7. Team Leadership You will be expected to demonstrate the ability to provide a clear direction for a team and lead them to achieve.
- 8. Equality, Diversity and Inclusion You will be expected to demonstrate an initiative you took to promote inclusive practices.

Please note - Responses should be made with specific examples. If generic answers are provided, the answer may be discounted.

The Interviewers will listen and draw from you the information to demonstrate your competency level. They may interrupt you at any time during your answer if they have all the information they require. The Interviewers may also probe further on a set question or ask another question on the same competency. This is to allow you to give as full an answer as possible.

Once the evidence has been gathered and the interview is completed, please feel free to ask the Interviewers any questions. The Interviewers will not be able to discuss your success in the interview or your performance.

ELECTION & SELECTION

Election

If more candidates pass the assessment than the number of Trustee positions available, an election will be called.

Up to 3 candidates per elected trustee position can be put into the election. For example if there are two (2) elected positions available, up to six (6) candidates can be on the ballot paper.

The decision of the Nominations Committee on the candidates will be final and binding.

The candidates polling the highest number of votes will be duly elected. In the example above, this would be the two (2) highest polling candidates.

Skills Assessment / Selection

The Nominations Committee following the election will undertake a skills audit of the Board as a whole. They will determine any missing skills of the Board and consider selection of candidate to fill positions on the Board from those who passed the telephone interview plus those who were unsuccessful at the election, subject to their agreement.

At this point a further TEAMs discussion may be scheduled to discuss your level of expertise against a specific skill(s).

The Nominations Committee will propose the selected Trustees to the Board of Trustees, who will be asked to ratify the decision.
